United Church of Chapel Hill
Check-in begins at 8:15 am

- Worship led by UMC Bishop Hope Morgan Ward and plenary by Mike Ward, former DPI Superintendent
- Workshops on issues from pre-K to College
- Roundtable discussion with leaders from the public schools, community colleges, and UNC system.

2014 Critical Issues Seminar: Public Education

Presented by the NC Council of Churches

Education is a basic social justice issue:

It is fundamental to our future success as individuals and as a community.

Open to all, but especially for people of faith:

Join others with a progressive vision for strong, successful public schools in NC to learn how we can support them.

Let's talk about:

Ensuring a public school system where educators are treated as professionals, access is equitable, and instruction, pre-K through college, is valued. Let's make sure every child in North Carolina gets an equal and excellent chance to succeed.

Visit www.ncchurches.org or call 919-828-6501 to register.

Cost: $25 regular; $15 students; $15 for Pre-K—College Educators (Includes arrival snacks and lunch — Pre-register by June 9 to guarantee lunch)
